

Gatik Chaujer

Experiment with your Passions, to discover your Purpose in Life” – this is Gatik’s key mantra that he truly lives by.

A passionate facilitator, coach & keynote speaker, with 20 years of training and coaching experience, his own journey is a story worth listening to! The son of an Air Force Pilot and a School Teacher – a lot of what Gatik does today comes from his experiences as a teenager – forming his initial foundation of the work that we was set out to do. With a deep desire to enable and serve people – Gatik chose facilitation, coaching and speaking as his tools to create a difference in the world.

Driven by his mission to transform a million lives, Gatik’s uniqueness lies in his inane ability to connect, spontaneously share, be mindfully present and bring humour to his sessions! Gatik is not just a brilliant storyteller but also a highly sought after storytelling coach – for speakers, leaders and marketers of the world’s leading organizations including Google, Adobe, EY, McKinsey and many more.

With numerous industry awards including the “Most Talented Training Leader” and the recognition of being on the Cover of a leading magazine, Gatik has created a unique niche for himself as a speaker, motivator and facilitator. He is a true ambassador of TransforMe’s Inside-Out philosophy and has sharpened his skills through various certifications and learnings varied methodologies to enable transformation including T-Groups, NLP, Storytelling and also his personal practices of Transcendental Meditation and Bowen Therapy.

A multi-faceted personality – Gatik’s many passions, coupled with his rich experience as a global facilitator and coach are what he is able to beautifully weave into his sessions to create an environment that is inspiring, engaging and motivating!