

Kym Viant

Kym is an exceptional facilitator, with accreditations in emotional and social competency inventory, leadership styles and climate, LSI/GSI, DiSC and level 2 organisational coaching.

After providing exemplary service for the last 24 years at Royal Australian Navy under many key roles, Kym has been spearheading many strategic business development activities in the Asia Pacific region for the last 3 years.

He's delivered countless numbers of fact to face workshops and virtual masterclasses on leadership development. He is also a Keynote speaker and presenter at major Australian Universities, delivering sessions for industry professionals on topics like Future of work, Diversity and inclusion etc.